"AND MAN TO MAN THE WORLD O'ER MAY BROTH-ERS BE FOR A' THAT"

Such was the impression District Deputy Exalted Ruler Dr. J. L. Gibson would leave with those who last night rode through the fields to Elkdom in the organization of the local lodge of that Order. Mr. Gibson, one of the provincial pioneers of Elkdom, in a mastery way endeavored to show how as Elks we could set aside all our petty differences and become as brothers in one of the greatest benevolent enterprises upon which man could enter.

The organization of the baby lodge at Blairmore was attended by great success, credit for which is largely due to Grand Organizer Jack McCoubrey and the assistance lent him by Mr. Robert Gray.

Present for the occasion were District Deputy Exalted Ruler Dr. J. L. Gibson and Grand Treasurer Sam Savage, both of Calgary, a degree team and others from Fernie and quite a number of visitors from other parts. The work of institution rested on Bros. Gibson and Savage, who performed their duties creditably. Degree work was conferred ably by a team from Fernie Lodge under the able leadership of Bro. W. J. Thomas.

One hundred and thirty-one candidates were initiated and made acquainted with the mysteries and principles of the Elk fraternity.

Following the initiation, the new lodge took its formation with the election and installation of officers as follows:

Past Exalted Ruler—Lance L. Morgan.
Exalted Ruler—Robert Gray.
Leading Knight—George A. Passmore.
Loyal Knight—R. W. Harold Pinkney.

GUSTASON-MONKS

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Apponen on Saturday evening last, in which Mr. Vendres Gus Gustason, of Blairmore, and Miss Winnifred A. L. Monks, of Calgary, were made man and wife. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Young in the presence of a few immediate friends.

Major General Sir Lee Stack, Governor General of Egypt, was attacked by a mob with revolvers and bombs on the streets of Cairo on November 19th and died from the effects of the attack on November 21st.

Lecturing Knight—Joseph E. Gillis.
Trustees—G. A. Vinas; W. J. Bartlett, C. J. Tompkins.
Chaplain—W. I. Huston.
Esquire—E. A. Harper.
Inner Guard—(To fill).
Tyler—George Sangster.
Secretary—William Bird.
Treasurer—W. A. Henderson.
Entertainment Committee—Donald M. J. Conway.

The initiatory degree was conferred by the following brothers from Fernie:

W. J. Thomas, Exalted Ruler.
Charles Edgar, Leading Knight.
J. W. Carwith, Loyal Knight.
Dr. Asseltine, Lecturing Knight.
M. A. Berigan, Esquire.
J. McLaren, Inner Guard.
Alf. Thompson, Chaplain.
J. Jerve, officer commanding degree team.

Following the degree work, interesting talks on Elk fraternalism were made by Messrs. Gibson, Savage, Thomas and the new Exalted Ruler, "Scotty" Gray, following which the entire gathering repaired to the Cosmopolitan hotel, where the inner man was to be treated. Here tables were spread to accommodate about 175 persons and were laden with all that could be desired by the most fastidious, including a generous serving of delicious roast turkey. Full justice was done the good things provided and the toast list followed, handled ably by Bro. Gray in the following order:

"The King," proposed by the chairman. Response, singing of "God Save The King."
"Blairmore Elks," proposed by Bro. Sam Savage, responded to by Bro. W. J. Bartlett.

"Grand Lodge," proposed by Bro. L. L. Morgan, responded to by Bro. J. L. Gibson, district deputy. In responding to the toast, Bro. Gibson took occasion to read messages of good will from sister lodges throughout the province and from the grand lodge.

"Our Guests," proposed by Bro. Dr. J. A. Key, responded to by Bro. W. J. Thomas, exalted ruler of the Fernie Lodge.

The menu of the evening was as follows:
Cream of Tomato Soup (a la Doc Gibson), Sam Savage Celery, Olives a la Pinkney, Scotch Turkey (Scotty Gray's ranch), Studebaker Chicken (Morgan fried) with Huston brand cranberry sauce, Conway style sautéed Irish spuds, Vinas green pea combination salad (Gillis' defence), Passmore's fruit jelly, Barnack cake, Bartlett tea, Scott's home-brew coffee, Olivier's health milk, Dutil's "horse power" sauce, tomato ketchup (Special a la Mayor) McCoubrey's Charter brand Worcester sauce, Hall's own brand vinegar (24-oz), Kerr's favorite salt and Pepper a la Lillie.

Blairmore Lodge starts out as Number Fifteen, under the most favorable circumstances. It is an acknowledged fact that no stronger charter list has ever been submitted in Alberta and prospects for adding to the list within the next few weeks are bright.

A meeting of the executive will be held this evening, when the questions of a meeting place and probable nights of meeting will be considered.

JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE

Co-Author of "The Four Men"

(Serial Rights Arranged Through F. D. Goodchild, Publishers, Toronto)

Exercising the utmost caution, he worked his way eastward until he reached a point where he had been told that the scene of the explosion had been shattered by a recent explosion. No crowd of white miners could have shot a single shot or fewer lost motions than the natives at work there. As he below, he saw no sign of a white oppressor.

Then, from a tent near the Indian encampment, there emerged a brawny man who answered the O'Malley's description of Bonnemort, the man who had done for Bart. Six feet two or three and built from the soles up, he stood looking over the busy scene.

In a flash, Seymour recognized the red-headed man who had insisted on sending him to the young Mounties in that Montreal cabaret. Something of a change of scene, this; but not so surprising in Canada—land of far-ranging opportunities.

The sergeant surmised this to be the alleged breed's first appearance of the morning. Confirmation came with the appearance of a young squaw bearing a tray of breakfast which she spread on a rough table before the tent. Indeed, this breed must have a "way" with the Swiwas, thought the sergeant, to command from such competent service. From his reserved seat in the brush, he envied him the cup of coffee and, later, the clear light of the autocat of the wild light. This, last was particularly tantalizing to one whose pipe must perform remain cold.

Presently came a small man on horseback, all white, puttee-clad and on reasonable supposition, one Kluger by name. Dismounted, the new arrival, reputed to be the "chief" of the outfit, did not come to his partner's shoulder; but from the rapidity of his movements, Seymour judged that his small frame concealed a dynamo of energy. The two conferred a moment, then started toward the sluice box.

Poering from behind the bushes, Seymour felt as though he were watching some well-lighted motion picture. He saw Bonnemort call a couple of Swiwas to him; but no word of their conversation reached him.

For an hour he watched them as they directed the clearing-up of the treasure gathered on the ridges—cross cleats of wood on the bottom of the sluice troughs—each day he washed the previous day. One departure from the regular place of things stood out. The sluice was able to two sacks, one twice the size of the other.

HER NERVES BETTER NOW

Received Much Benefit by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chatham, Ontario.—"I started to get weak after my second child was born, and kept on getting worse until I could not do my own housework and was so bad with my nerves that I was afraid to stay in bed. I was afraid to get up at any time, I had a hard time working for me a whole year before I began to feel better. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am going to keep on with it until cured. My nerves are a lot better and I can stay up day or night and not be the least frightened. You can see this from a testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

the first, she admitted, and for that reason she had watched his descent from the top of the cliff, marking the difficulties he had overcome. After helping her father back to the mission, she had given her evening to make-up and costume. She left home before daybreak.

"You mean to say you tip-toed that ledge and made the jump into the fire?" he asked incredulously. She shook her head, dashing him a smile. "I drifted by watching you. I came all the way down. But now, bringing an extra coil, ready knotted from the mission and tying it to the end of yours."

"But you won't be able to fool the squaws!" he observed, again looking troubled.

"Haven't tried. They think I slipped in to see how they are faring and tagged out as one of them that the whites would not suspect my visit. They seem pleased—perhaps flattered—and will keep my secret."

Seymour did not relish the situation created by her persistence. The girl's presence was a severe complication. It handicapped him just when his investigation was advancing with unexpected smoothness. And now that she was, in his duty was to get her out safely.

"And how are your Indian ways faring?" he asked, by way of gaining time to figure out the safest, most expeditious exit for her.

"They puzzle me for they have no complaint," she answered. "Either conditions have changed or the poster was sadly misled in his observations. Actually, the Indians seem to look upon Bonnemort and Kluger as benefactors. 'Myiukuk Boston men,' they call the rescuers."

"B. & K. are taking the bulk of the clean-up," Seymour told her. "I watched the dirty when they stripped the sluices out from this morning."

"But that doesn't seem possible," Seymour protested at his seeming lack of his most trusted knowledge that the Indians are given all the gold."

Seymour seemed to have heard him. He was crossing to the front of the wall where, beneath the table, he had noticed a sack craved like the treasure-weighted one he had seen the partners carry from the creek. But if this was the same, it had been empty.

"All the gold, I said," repeated the girl, impatient at his seeming lack of attention to her astonishing report. What do you make of that, Sergeant Scarlett?"

"I'll say that is right kind and unbelievably generous of B. & K. and that a richly deserved surprise to my trisler when I get her out of jeopardy."

The sergeant had upturned the sack and was shaking it. A single jagged lump, evidently held in the fabric when the sack was craved, he thudded to the ground. Both leaned over to examine it. The girl did so, too, and was the first.

"More of that old frog-gold," she said with another low, aggravating sigh.

As the canvas flaps fell behind him, he made a rapid survey of the interior. Two folding camp stools, a table built of empty dynamite boxes with the labels of the "Kingdom Come" brand much in evidence, and an improvised clothes horse hung with an assortment of masculine apparel. His particular interest went to what looked like a carpenter's tool chest, but which, for want of any likelier container, he took to be the camp's treasury box. Without much hope, he stooped and tried to open it.

In the act of kneeling to examine this, the tent was suffused in sunlight from the opening of a flap. He straightened and turned as a young squaw entered, her head bound in a brilliant-colored bandanna. Possibly she was the fastidious Bonnemort's chambermaid, he thought, come to make the bed. His heart all traced. An alarm would ruin all.

"Kio-howah!" she gouted the usual Chinook greeting, but without surprise at finding him in the tent. "Don't mind me," he managed to reply with a well-assured assurance, hoping she at least could understand English, even though she did not speak it.

But she spoke it, and to his utter consternation. "Right good make-up if it looks a Mummy," she said with a lifting laugh that was controlled not to carry beyond the canvas. "How do you like me as a Mummy?"

"Mummy!" he whispered. "None other, Sergeant Scarlett."

CHAPTER XXIV.

Tent-Told Tales

Seymour stood and stared at the young woman, marveling at her complete transformation. A right good make-up, she had called it. He could truthfully make the statement stronger. When her eyes were hidden and her voice stifled, all trace of his beloved was gone. She looked as though she had been born from the trail of a square mother and had passed her babyhood strapped to a horse.

The fine lines of her slim young figure were swathed in rags after the fashion of the North Coast native women. Waist line was all her make-up shift skirt seemed to drop from her shoulders. For a one-piece garment, it certainly was of pieces, patched and pinned and tied together. He doubted if she could step out of it without taking it apart.

To her complexion she had done something to give it a rich copper tinge. The hands were stained to match. Her lips had been thickened with a counterfeited of the tattooing with a counterfeit of the native women's figure themselves.

In a solid rag added the last touch of resemblance.

Recovering from his first shock, Seymour reminded himself of their situation. "That's your coming here yesterday that you're coming here beyond all reason?" he demanded all most belatedly.

"Not so far beyond as myself," she murmured rebelliously. "I'm here, am I not? And you'll find me more reasonable—having had my own way."

She intended following him from

Mental Hygiene

Energetic Educational Campaign Is To Be Carried On

Organized only six years ago, the Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene has already met with a degree of success far beyond any the originators dared hope for. Dr. C. M. Hickey, medical officer, declared at the annual meeting of the committee held in Montreal. But though much has been accomplished the great work of the organization lies ahead. Its field is practically limitless.

It was decided to carry on an energetic educational campaign and arrangements were made for the appropriation of money for the extensive mental hygiene activities in the more outlying parts of the dominion, particularly in the western provinces, where there are the best of opportunities for demonstrating the value of mental hygiene.

Dr. Charles F. Martin was elected president for the coming year and Dr. J. G. McKay, New Westminster, B.C., was appointed associated medical director, Drs. J. Halpin and A. T. Mathers, Winnipeg, and President W. C. Murray, of Saskatoon, were elected to the executive committee.

Where Everyone Has Work

No Unemployment on Hayling Island Near Southampton

Hayling Island is about the only place in England where there is no unemployment. The island, in the Southampton area, has a prosperous population of about 3,000, and at present no one there is receiving a penny from the national unemployment fund. The men and women of the island are all busy in the fields, in the fishing grounds, and the shops.

The mackerel season, which is just over, has been the best in years and the harvest, unlike the rest of England, is bountiful. There are plenty of visitors on the island and the inhabitants are in a state of financial exuberance. The islanders also differ from their mainland compatriots in that they would rather live in the country than in towns.

Last year the population of one of the two towns on the island dropped 800 to 500 because the price of farm products went up—Orilla Packet.

Distinction Of A Car Driver

Having An Automobile Now Does Not Signify Anything

Once, upon a time—oh, but it was long ago—the ownership of an automobile was a badge of wealth. It meant credit and social prestige and all that sort of thing.

Now to own a car signifies nothing more than that you own a car. Distinction begins to lie in non-ownership.

Several times of late we have heard men say, "I wish I were poor." The owners of limousines, boys that they possessed no motor vehicle of any sort, and yet that they never would—"Chicago Post."

LITTLE HELPS FOR THIS WEEK

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able to bear; but with the temptation also make a way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.—1 Cor. x, 12.

Be it good or ill, be it what you will, it needs must pass by on my road. My rugged way to heaven, please God.

—Christina G. Rossetti

God help you to do something more than to resist your temptation. God help you to do something more than simply to come down as if you had resisted an enemy. God help you to come forth not merely strong, but stronger; not merely having kept the strength you have, but filled with a new and inspiring strength, which subdues in these three great things which have taken possession of your soul—your consciousness that God is over you; that the power of God is in you; and that every one led into temptation is the child of God.

—Phillips Brooks.

Everybody Must Help

An era of great prosperity is forecast, but every one is expected to step out and hustle for his share of it.—Detroit Free Press.

A Profitable Crop

Diversified Methods Paid For the Operation of the Farms

A heavy crop, of which the returns were all, clear profit, is the good fortune of Ernest Beil, of the St. Paul de Meils district of Alberta, this year. In accordance with old repeated advice, Mr. Beil inclined towards cows and pigs for production of present cash and the result of his wisdom was that these branches of the industry paid for the operation of the farm and the living expenses of the family. It so happened that his grain crops also prospered, and according to colonization officials of the Canadian National Railway he harvested 11,000 bushels. His wheat yielded 35 bushels to the acre and totalled 3,000 No. 1. Northern. His oats gave 65 bushels per acre and he marketed 6,000 first-class seed. In spite of variable weather a number of farmers in the St. Paul district harvested large crops this year.

Spider's Web Used

For Field Glasses

Are Stronger and Thinner Than Any Other Substance

The fine strands of a spider's web are the strongest and the thinnest obtainable. Since they are only about five ten-thousandths of an inch thick, they are said to serve better than any other substance for the cross hairs on the surveyor's telescopes or for field glasses. The web is taken from the insects by allowing them to drop from a loom. As fast as they drop, the web, left behind, is wound on spools and placed in storage. A certain species known as the Michigan grey and brown spotted spider is raised for the purpose.

CONSTIPATED CHILDREN

Constipation is one of the most common ailments of childhood and the child suffering from it positively cannot thrive. To keep the little one well the bowels must be kept regular and the stomach sweet. To do this nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative; are pleasant to take and can be given to the newborn babe with perfect safety. Thousands of mothers use no other medicine for their little ones but Baby's Own Tablets. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Guarding Kimberley Fields

The Kimberley diamond fields are well guarded. Each mine is fenced in and the enclosure is roofed with wire to prevent the native laborers from throwing diamonds over the fence to confederates on the outside. No boots, shoes or other hard materials may be taken out—only clothing which has been minutely searched.

HOCKEY PICTORIAL

A "MASTERPIECE"

The editor has received a copy of the Hockey Pictorial which has just been published, and which is at once the handsomest and most complete publication ever produced in the world for any single sport. It is a marvel of good taste in artistry and industry of achievement. It is impossible to speak too highly of it.

The book represents years of effort, typographically and pictorially, it is a "masterpiece." From cover to cover it is embellished with group pictures of championship teams from 1888 to 1924, in fact, the history of Canada's Great National Winter Sport is told in pictures.

Old-timers will be interested in the handsome halftones of the teams who were prominent a generation ago, while the younger enthusiasts will enjoy the reproductions of the more recent winners.

The book is not only lavishly illustrated, but is literally crammed with much interesting information regarding individuals, clubs and leagues throughout the country.

Local hockey fans will find a very interesting group picture of the Blaimore Championship team of 1923 and also a complete history of the players and records right to the finals.

The book sells for $2.00 and can be secured by writing to the Hockey Pictorial, 84 Victoria St., Toronto.

PLAN TO GET HUNGARIANS

Canadian immigration authorities are interested in a movement to bring to northern Saskatchewan, and probably eastern Manitoba, several hundred agricultural workers from Hungary-Hungary. The project is being handled by Dr. H. V. Gidson, one of the largest land owners in Hungary and Czechoslovakia, who is now in the west looking over suitable land north of Saskatoon.

Dr. Gidson's land, since the making of the new map, is divided between the two countries and his tenants, settled on several thousand acres, are becoming discontented. If he is successful in disposing of a large portion of his holdings to European governments, as he expects, he intends to acquire land in Western Canada and settle on it hundreds of his tenants who are experienced grain growers and livestock breeders.

ducted in principles of political economy and economics of agriculture.

There is possibly no more definite indication of the advance in a desire for information among the farmers than the keen interest that has been taken in this course. Students in all the three prairie provinces took advantage of it in 1923 and already the university reports a keen interest in the course for the present year.
One of the very interesting things is the fact that groups have been formed, in some cases farmers' locals, but in many cases church clubs or community leagues and the members have met at regular intervals to discuss together the topics and questions before sending in their individual papers.

Sometimes they have had a local resident who is more or less familiar with the subjects who has acted as a leader. Sets of practical questions and problems are supplied for each study and the student taking them up is expected to send in his written answers as completed. These are reviewed by the extension department instructor with comments and suggestions. It is expected that in the ordinary course a paper a week will be sent in. The date of commencement and the date of correspondence's return are left quite flexible to meet individual needs.

It must not be thought that these correspondence courses will carry with them any credit towards a university degree, but a university certificate of recognition is given to each student on the satisfactory completion of his course.

Apart from the actual study of the subject there is not much doubt but that the writing out in form of the answers, knowing that they will be subjected to critical review, tends to a closer and greater care on the part of each student than if answering orally.

Altogether the course is one to be very highly commended, and it is very inexpensive as the only charge is $5, which includes the cost of text books, supplementary material, question sheets and supplied stationery.

There are three courses offered by the department for 1924-5, and a student may take any one or all three, according to the amount of time the student has to spend. The charge, of course, would be $5 for each course, as there would be the expense of books, etc., for each course. The applications should be sent in as early as possible to Harold S. Patton, extension department, University of Alberta, Edmonton.

COAL MINING IN ALBERTA

Acting upon a resolution passed at the last session of the Legislature, the Government of Alberta has appointed a commission to investigate conditions in the coal mining industry of that province. The commission is headed by H. E. Evans, an Edmonton business man, and includes a representative of the operators and a representative of the miners. The scope of the enquiry, as defined by the order-in-council, is very broad, the items set forth in the commission's mandate, being coal mining titles, capitalization, financial arrangements and costs of production, transportation and distribution of products, marketing, uses of by-products, selling prices, coal reserves, conservation and waste of coal; mine workmen, their earnings, living costs and conditions, housing conditions and educational facilities; mining conditions, mining methods; use of labor saving devices and provisions for the safety of workmen; conditions elsewhere, and particularly in competitive fields; legislation affecting the industry in Alberta and elsewhere. The commission will have authority to call for such information as it may desire, to compel the attendance of witnesses, and to examine them under oath. The members of the commission are men who already possess some knowledge of the industry in one or more of its branches, and the enquiry promises to be as thorough as it will be comprehensive. There is no specified limit of time within which the report must be made and the apparent disposition of the chairman is to conduct an exhaustive rather than a hurried enquiry.

If the work of this commission results, as the provincial government hopes, in establishing more stable conditions in this important industry, it will be a good thing for Alberta and a good thing, perhaps, for other provinces as well. Canada's coal resources in the West are enormous, the Alberta reserves alone amounting to some fifteen per cent of the world's supply, and the coal is easily accessible; yet the mines of Alberta have not taken their proper place in Canadian economy. This has been attributed, in part, to the fact that there has been no sustained demand in summer for the product of these mines, but when attempts have been made to enlarge the market, notably by supplying Alberta coal to consumers in Ontario, the real difficulty has been found to lie in the relatively high cost of production. Experiments have been made in cheap, or cheaper, transportation, with a view to developing the industry and at the same time assuring Ontario customers of a dependable supply, but these experiments failed because the problem was not to be solved even by transportation at cost, but by something nearer home. It has been stated that the western mines are capable of meeting a largely increased demand without adding materially to their present equipment, so that there exists the anomalous condition presented by ample resources and facilities for production, on the one hand, and a large and permanent—if distant—market, on the other, with apparently no practical means existing for bringing these two factors into their natural economic relation. It has been demonstrated that railway rates, even when cut to the bone, will not meet the case, and the conclusion is that if the riddle is to be solved at all the key must be found in a lower cost at the mines, i.e., in cheaper production.

This is one of the matters to be enquired into by the new Alberta commission, and it is the crux of the whole question. Indeed, the commission should not have to proceed very far before finding out what is wrong in the industry. The public already knows quite a lot about it, having seen the industry more or less demoralized time after time by strikes, local or general, and being by this time painfully familiar with the determination of organized labor in Alberta to exact a prohibitive price for its service. A threatened tie-up in the Edmonton district has just been averted, but the lesson of the prolonged strike in the larger field of southern Alberta and southeastern British Columbia, known as District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America is still fresh and is not likely to be soon forgotten. This strike began on April 1st and continued until October 10th, nearly eight thousand men being involved in it, chiefly Alberta. The supremacy of the United Mine Workers of America in this field was one of the achievements of the former minister of labor, Hon. Gideon Robertson; it was to have been a guarantee of stability in the industry. When the wage scale established during and after the war expired at the end of March, the operators sought to effect a downward revision involving a reduction of $1.17 per day, the war and post-war scales having included some percentage increase as well as a cost-of-living bonus. The strike followed and the mines remained idle, until a month ago the union accepted substantially the same wages that had been proposed by the operators more than six months before. Some extremely interesting figures as to the cost of this disastrous proceeding have been published by the department of labor. The time lost in six months and ten days of idleness amounted to 1,500,000 day-out of a total of 2,567,987 for the year, though some allowance must be made for seasonal slack time during the spring and early summer. Taking the loss in production as a basis, the time loss in man working days was approximately 775,000. In the four months period to July the loss in coal production amounted to 800,000 tons for Alberta and 180,000 tons for British Columbia, there being a drop in output from a five-year average of 1,434,038 tons to 442,596 for this year. Applying this ratio to the other two months of the strike, the loss in production reaches a total of 1,500,000 tons. So much for the figures of the department of labor. The aggregate loss in wages has been estimated unofficially at $4,650,000, and the loss in production at $6,000,000. Here, surely, is an instructive record for the guidance of the commission which the Alberta Government has set to work.—Montreal Gazette.

WHAT CAN I DO?

Western Canada is entering upon a new era of prosperity. A change for the better for individuals in all walks of life is seen on every hand. The prospective improvement will be reflected in the private and business life of all concerned. Business men from Eastern Canada, who in recent years have advanced capital for the development of Western industry, whether it be agricultural or otherwise, rural or urban, view the general situation with great satisfaction. Western business, though somewhat more backward in showing optimism over the changing conditions, are also looking on the improved situation with a more cheerful view. The prosperity of the country as a whole depends to a greater or lesser extent upon each and every individual—each and every one of us can aid in advancing the more prosperous future that is forecast.

One reason cited by the eastern business men and bankers for advancing the statement that the general business situation in the West is improving, is that old outstanding obligations are being liquidated. In recent years business in the West has been greatly handicapped by the fact that merchants, both retail and wholesale, have been compelled to carry a great many of their customers on extended credit. This has meant tie up of a vast amount of capital in book debts and has been detrimental to the further development of the country. This condition was not in the making of any one person or group of persons, but the result of general crop conditions, high cost of production, and low return.

During the last two years this has been altered to a measurable extent. Last year the West was blessed with a bumper crop; this year the crop was not so large, but the price was better and the cost of production was lower. Between the two years the return has been sufficient to enable the ultimate consumer to liquidate some of his outstanding obligations, as well as keep pace with his immediate requirements.

The liquidating of these old debts has had a far reaching effect and in fact works around into a circle. The farmer who sells his crop and is able to settle a debt that has been outstanding for several years has done his share toward creating better conditions. The payment may have been made to the local storekeeper, machinist or lumber man. A portion of that money stays in the community in which the debt was contracted and later paid. The merchant who received the payment was placed in the position of being able to pay his wholesaler, who in turn passed the money on into various other channels, enabling individuals in the employ of other industries to purchase more of the products of the farms. So when the farmer gets his money for his grain and pays off his local merchant, he is starting an endless chain in motion that reaches around the whole country. So it is quite apparent that the prosperity that is in view for Western Canada can only become an accomplished fact through the realization that for all to share in this prosperity each and every one must do his share to promote it.

DON'T BE A WHEELBARROW

A wheelbarrow has its uses. Some times it bears heavy loads. But it always has to be pushed. It never initiates anything; it always waits for a master; it has no power.

Gideon had an experience with human wheelbarrows. First, he had an army of thirty-two thousand; and twenty-two thousand were cowards, so he let them go. Then he had ten thousand, and he started with them to battle. They came in sight of the enemy, and just then they came to a brook. How many of them leaped forward to fight? Three hundred! Out of the ten thousand, nine thousand seven hundred were wheelbarrows; they had to be pushed. Leisurely they knelt down and drank their fill. Time enough to fight when somebody should tell them to. Nobody ever told them; they were sent home. And with three hundred auto-energized fighters, Gideon won the most amazing victory in Israelitish history.

It's all right to look for leadership to expect and obey directions. Co-operations demands organization, and organization supposes captains, but not tugs. If you wait for every move to come from a push, you will not get very far or do very much in these days. Engines are taking the place of the pushers.

The following is clipped from a recent copy of the Sydney Post. Mr. Madison is a brother of Jack Madison, of Hillcrest, and is very well known in these parts. He visited his brother at Hillcrest last year: "Returning to the city after an absence of a couple of weeks, Ralph Madison, known as 'Canada's greatest baritone ballad singer' delighted his large audience with his splendid voice. Mr. Madison sang the old favorite 'Where the River Shannon Flows,' also a more popular number 'Rose of Picardy,' and as an encore he delighted his audience with 'What Will I Do?' It is indeed a rare treat for Sydney theatre patrons to hear Mr. Madison sing, and the warm reception he received on his appearance testified to his ability."

The new 15 mile extension of the E.D. and B.C. west of Grande Prairie has been completed and will be ready for shipment of grain and livestock shortly.

The Prince of Wales "E.P." Ranch in Alberta is shipping four Shorthorns to compete at the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago, November 29th to December 6th. Two of these, the famous "King of the Fairies" and "Princeton Rosewood" will be exhibited in the name of the ranch. "Princeton Enthusiast," the undefeated young bull that topped the Prince's recent sale at $775.00 and "Princess Countess" will be shown by their new owners, Major "Pawnee Bill" Lilley, Pawnee, Oklahoma, and H. Morrison, Lacombe, Alberta, respectively.

HOME BANK DEPOSITORS ARE BECOMING HOPEFUL

TORONTO, Nov. 24.—There is every reason to hope that the federal government will take some steps at the next session of parliament to reimburse Home Bank depositors, the national executive committee of the Depositors' Relief association, informs the depositors in an optimistic statement, issued today. The committee will meet the federal government in Ottawa next Thursday to press the case for reimbursement of the depositors. The committee's statement, signed by the chairman and secretary, W. T. J. Lee and I. E. Weldon, respectively, cites four reasons for hoping for government assistance. They are:

- 1—A favorable report from the royal commission conducted by Chief Justice McKeown substantiating the case made out by the depositors in their claim for reimbursement.
- 2—A report from the banking and commerce committee of parliament, carried by 27 to 11, recognizing the moral claim in equity of the depositors for compensation by the country.
- 3—A unanimous vote by parliament adopting the report of the banking and commerce committee.
- 4—Statement by the premier of Canada on behalf of the government, that announcement will be made at the opening of next session of parliament as to what action the government will take in view of the unanimous adoption by the house of the banking and commerce committee's report.

COMPANIONS

Two farmers met after church and had this conversation:
"I hear you've sold your pig?"
"Yes, sold him last Thursday."
"What d'ye get?"
"Eight dollars."
"What'd cost you to raise it?"
"Paid three dollars for the shote, and five more for the feed."
"Didn't make much, did ye?"
"No, but I had the company of the pig all summer."—The Informant.

Perplexed

An old lady from the country was being shown round a fish-curing house, and on arriving at the kipper department the owner noticed a very perplexed look on her face.

"Is there anything I can explain to you?"
"My good man, there be a mighty lot. Tell me, how do those kippers swim in the sea? Do they swim open or closed?"

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

The editor goes on week after week boosting the town and community and advocating the doctrine of trading at home. The business man puts him on the back and says "That's the right idea; tell it to 'em." He then calmly sends an order to an out of town print shop for a supply of stationery. Funny world, isn't it?

With reference to strikes, the Ottawa Journal makes the following comment editorially: "The strike method, instead of being the first resort of employees, should be the very last; but somehow there always seems to be enough hot-heads in the community to wrongly persuade their fellows—invariably to their undoing. The strike method was always the wrong method; for workers to go out on strike at the present time, when industry is depressed, is both foolish and cruel. Under the stress of keen competition and lessened business, employers are often not able to do for their employees what they would like to do or what the employers think they are entitled to."

The Winnipeg Free Press remarks: "Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and Mr. Asquith were drowned out by hecklers when they were speaking into microphones at political meetings. Mr. Baldwin went to the office of the radio company and talked to thousands without interruption. Mr. Baldwin is now prime minister of Great Britain. Brains count."

At the rate police investigations are travelling westward, they should strike Alberta some time next year—probably about a year or so too late.

Much Needed Reforms

The time of year approaches when, as a rule, the Legislatures of the several Provinces are called in annual session, and, within a couple of months, the Dominion Parliament will be in session. In fact, some of the Legislatures, including that of Saskatchewan, are now sitting. The time is opportune, therefore, to again press for action in regard to a matter which has on previous occasions been the subject of comment in this column. We refer to the unnecessarily large membership in most of our Legislative bodies, and to the equally unnecessarily large and unwieldy sessional indemnities paid these members.

Canada does not require approximately one thousand Senators, Members of Parliament and M.L.A.'s to direct its Federal and Provincial legislative and administrative work; nor should it be necessary to pay quite so many millions of dollars annually to public-spirited men to direct the affairs of this Dominion as representatives of the whole people.

At the last session of the Saskatchewan Legislature a resolution was adopted in favor of a reduction in membership when the subject of a redistribution of representation again came up for consideration. The present session is the fifth of the existing Legislature and there is a strong probability it will be the last, and, as a rule, redistribution, when it is necessary, precedes dissolution. Regardless of the fact whether dissolution is impending in Saskatchewan or not, it is to be hoped that the pious resolution of a year ago will be translated into effective action now, and Saskatchewan thus lead the way in the direction of smaller legislative bodies, and a consequent welcome relief of the over-burdened taxpayer.

While it is easier to create new Provinces and new Legislatures than it is to merge two existing Provinces into one, because in the process of amalgamation so many conflicting interests have to be reconciled, the fact remains that, so far as the three Prairie Provinces and the three Maritime Provinces are concerned, each of these groups have so much in common that one Provincial Legislature in the West and one down by the sea could just as efficiently, and much more economically, legislate for and administer Provincial affairs as can the six separate bodies now in existence. Because the difficulties involved in amalgamation are difficult, constitutes no valid reason why their solution should not be attempted.

Reduction in the amount of indemnities paid is much easier of attainment than reduction in the number of constituencies. All that is required is the consent of the present members. Indemnities to Members of Parliament and of Legislatures were first intended, as the word itself indicates, to constitute a reasonable reimbursement for out of pocket expenses connected with the discharge of public duties attached to these positions, rather than what it has come to mean, namely, an annual salary.

Just prior to and during the late war, when the purchasing power of the dollar rapidly declined, there was a steady increase in the amounts fixed as "sessional indemnities." The war is over, and the dollar has regained some of its old value, but its former purchasing power, but indemnities still remain at the old war figure. It is time they began to decline and were brought down to a level where they more nearly approximate to actual out of pocket expenses of members both at Ottawa and the various Provincial capitals.

While holding the view that members should be indemnified for expenses incurred by reason of their public position, we much doubt the wisdom of paying what amounts to substantial salaries. It would be a mistake to make our legislative bodies a preserve for only men of means and leisure and practically bar from membership hard working men and women of small means. But a reasonable indemnity provides the necessary safeguard against any such development.

On the other hand, large indemnities have a tendency to attract men for the sake of the salary rather than to render public service to the state. It has been said that the personnel of our Parliament and Legislatures has declined coincident with the advance in the so-called indemnities. Whether this is true or not, danger lies in that direction. Not only so, but once elected it is only human for a member to seriously consider the effect his vote may have on some important and grave issue. In precipitating an election before the legal term of Parliament or Legislature has expired, and thereby possibly removing him from legislative halls and a substantial salary, not to mention other perquisites of his public position.

With elections not far distant in the Dominion arena and several of the Provinces, the powers that be would not be guilty of making a tactical blunder with the voters at large if they proceeded to reduce both the number of members elected and the size of the indemnities to be paid. It is doubtful if many present members would care to face their constituents in opposition to such much needed reforms.

PALE ANAEMIC GIRLS

Find New Health Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

There must be no guesswork in the treatment of pale, anaemic girls and children. If your daughter is languid, has a pale, sallow complexion, is short of breath after slight exertion or on going up stairs, if she has palpitation of the heart, a poor appetite, or a tendency to faint, she has anaemia—the medical name for poverty of the blood. Any delay in treatment may imperil her work and study for the rest of her life. Delay may even result in consumption, that most hopeful of diseases. When the blood is poor and watery give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, promptly with nourishing food and gentle out-of-door exercise. The new, life-giving blood which follows a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stimulates the nerves, increases the appetite and brings the glow of health to late cheeks. Mrs. W. E. Armour, Havelock, Ont., says: "My little girl got into a very poor state of health. She was weak, very much run-down, and as the doctor did not seem to do her any good, I thought I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking six boxes of the pills she got nice and rosy and strong again. I would recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to anyone weak and run-down."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail for $1.00 at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Soviet Asks Return Of Russian Fleet

Authorities Repeat Previous Demand To French Government.
Since the recognition of the Russian Soviet regime by France, the Soviet authorities have repeated with particular insistence the demand made previously, that the French Government turn over the Russian fleet which took refuge in the port of Biseria, Tunis, after the defeat of General Wrangel's army in its anti-Bolshevik campaign in the Crimea and the advance of the Bolshevik forces to Sebastopol.

The French Government is considerably embarrassed because of the impression the restoration of the fleet might have on Rumania and other neighbors of Russia to whom the possession of such a naval force by the Soviet regime might cause anxiety.

Advocates Use Of Motor Cars

Would Prevent Discontent Among Working Classes In England.
"Wide and indeed almost universal use of the motor car has proved for the United States the antidote for Bolshevism." This is the impression brought back from his United States visit by Lord Ashfield, chairman of the London Underground Railways.

"Teh motor car," he says in a newspaper interview, "has afforded the working people in the cities an opportunity of reaching the country, spending their leisure hours away from their ordinary surroundings, along with their families and friends. It gives them something to which they look forward when their day's work is finished and goes a long way toward preventing discontent and unrest creeping in."

Canada's Trade Abroad

New Markets Being Opened Up Continually For Our Products

Canada's sales in Oriental countries 25 years ago were less than $50,000 a year, but last year Japan took $241 worth of goods for every dollar she took them. China took $51 worth for every dollar taken in 1900. Greece is a country that bought only $2,382 of Canadian products from Canada in 1900, whereas last year she took over $6,000. In that year little Switzerland took but $235 worth of commodities; last year she took $1,289.00. Belgium last year took $20 worth for every dollar's worth in 1900.

These figures demonstrate that the rapidly with which buses have developed a field for themselves has been remarkable.

Canadian Apples Well Packed

Exhibits at Wembley Are Still Fresh and Sound

"Hitherto fruit from the orchards of British Columbia, Ontario and Nova Scotia has often been sold at a heavy loss in the English markets because it has suffered severe bruising against the sides of boxes," says A. W. Toles. "A new experiment was tried with the exhibits for Wembley. The apples were 'crawled packed' or protected from the sides of the cases by a layer of special packing material. The result is that these apples are as fresh and as sound today as when they left the trees over a year ago—a durability record in the history of the Canadian apple."

"Both the dealers and growers have been amazed at the success of this experiment and we are confident that Wembley will result in almost doubling the apple business between England and Canada during future seasons."

Ugawa heads a group of five Japanese railway officials in this country to purchase electrical equipment for the new system. During their stay they will inspect hydro-electric plants, electric railways and the establishments of the leading manufacturers of electric equipment.

MAJ.-GEN. STACK IS THE VICTIM OF ASSASSIN'S PLOT

Cairo.—Major-General Sir Lee Oliva Stack, Governor-General of the Sudan and Sir of the Egyptian army since 1919, has succumbed to the bullets of an assassin.

The Sir was attacked by a group of men, who, failing to achieve their purpose with a bomb, opened fire on him with revolvers. General Stack was wounded in the abdomen, the head and the foot, one of the bullets passing under the lung. From the first, his condition was serious, and there was very little hope that he would recover.

The whole country is profoundly shocked at the outrage, and the gravity of the situation is everywhere realized. The press denounces the crime in the strongest terms. The Zagloul papers unanimously declare that Egypt's honor demands the discovery of the culprits and their exemplary punishment. Nothing, they assert, will be neglected "to wash away the bloody stain on the country's honor."

London.—The announcement from Cairo of the death of Major-General Sir Lee Stack has aroused tense feeling in London. The British cabinet held a specially summoned council, probably for the purpose of discussing the outrage and policy to be followed.

Although the King of Egypt and the Sudan authorities have taken a correct attitude, it is expected that the British Government will dispatch a strong note insisting on prompt satisfaction for the assassination and guarantees for cessation of anti-British propaganda.

Britain Is Expecting Reduction In Postage

Possible Now That Postmaster-General's Department Shows Surplus

London.—An insistent demand is being made for the restoration of penny postage in this country, and it is believed that the demand proceeds from an intelligent surmise that the postal revenue will now permit of such reduction that the postmaster-general will be quite agreeable thereto.

The new postmaster-general comes into office with an encouraging balance, which leads to the hope that the return of the penny-postage may come soon.

Veterans Will Ask For Wider Scope

Think Pensions Appeal Board Should Have More Latitude

Ottawa.—"We are going to ask at the coming session of parliament for the enactment of the legislation granting the right to enter appeals before the board of appeals from all decisions of the board of pension commissioners and department of soldiers' civil re-establishment," stated C. Grant McNeil, secretary of the Dominion command of the Great War Veterans' Association.

At the present time appeals lie on questions concerning the origin of the man's disability.

Wrangel Island Party Was Well Treated By Soviets

Vladivostok.—The Soviet expedition which recently isolated the Russian garrison on Wrangel Island returned here on the armed transport Red October. On board was Charles Wells, member of the Stefansson party, who was taken off the island with 13 Eskimos. According to Soviet officials, Wells made a written statement in the presence of a British consul, stating that he left Wrangel of his own accord and was entirely satisfied with his treatment during the voyage of the Red October to Vladivostok.

Reciprocal Trade In Meat

Reported That Baldwin Government May Permit Dominion to Supply Meat to U.S.

London.—A scheme by which the Baldwin Government could extend reciprocal treatment to the Dominions in the meat trade, without causing a fiscal controversy, and without increasing the cost of living here, or imposing a tariff on foreign commodities, is being considered by the government, according to The Morning Post. The idea is to estimate the home consumption of meats for six months, and to permit the Dominion to supply, under a license, whatever the deficiency is likely to be after the home supply of meat is exhausted.

If the Dominion cannot supply enough meat to meet the deficiency in the home supply, the Post says, the proposition is to then allow meat from foreign countries to be admitted under a license.

Alberta To Have Sugar Beet Factory

Southern Part of Province Good For Beet Raisin

Salt Lake City.—The Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, of Salt Lake, will erect a new beet sugar factory in Southern Alberta, Canada, in the near future, and the one in the Yakima Valley, Eastern Washington, will be discontinued, according to announcement by company officials here. The Yakima Valley plant is considered located in poor sugar beet producing territory, and the prospects in Alberta are declared good for beet raising. How much will be spent in construction of the Alberta factory was not made known.

South Africa Will Exhibit Next Year

Government Decides to Again Participate in British Empire Show

Capetown.—South Africa will again participate in the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley next year, an announcement to this effect having just been made by Lord Horder, secretary of the board of trade.

This is a reversal of the South African Government's decision of October, when it was announced it would not exhibit at Wembley in 1925.

The governments of New Zealand and Ceylon are now the only ones who have decided definitely not to repeat their exhibits at Wembley next year. So far India is apathetic on the matter.

Winter Fair Exhibits Increase

Seed Exhibit in Toronto Greatest on Continent Is Claim

Toronto.—Exhibits in the dairy products and seeds at the annual Winter Fair were so large and competition so keen the judges were unable to complete their task as quickly as usual, and results in only a few of the seed competitions were announced the first day. The seed exhibition is freebie that of last year and is said to be the greatest on the American continent.

Every province is represented in dairy products which constitutes a record.

Bill Aimed At Chinese

Victoria, B.C.—Employment of Orientals and white girls together in the homes of British Columbia will not be allowed if a bill, notice of which was given in the legislature by Mrs. Ralph Smith, Liberal, Vancouver, passes. Mrs. Smith's move follows a vigorous agitation by Vancouver Scottish societies as a sequel to the Janet Smith murder case.

Cost Millions To Stamp Out Disease

Huge Sum Spent in California to Protect Cattle

Sacramento, Cal.—Through a report made public by G. H. Hecke, state director of agriculture, it was disclosed that 195,141 head of livestock, mostly cattle, with an appraised value of $4,362,611, were destroyed during the campaign that was carried on in the spring and summer by the State and Federal Governments to control the epidemic of foot and mouth disease. The property lost incidental to the campaign is placed by appraisers of the department of agriculture at $63,632, making a grand total of $4,326,243.

U. S. MAY CALL CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT

Washington.—The prevailing view in Washington is that the League of Nations abandons its proposed disarmament conference, President Coolidge will call another conference dealing with reduction of land and naval armament. Although the White House has not announced any intention to do this since news came of the British action with regard to the Geneva protocol on security and disarmament, feeling here is that President Coolidge will be forced to act. It is felt that his earlier utterances have made it impossible for him to avoid calling such a conference.

Geneva.—Great Britain's request that the coming session of the League of Nations in Rome should not take up the question of the Geneva protocol on security and disarmament, will mean adjournment of the arm conference until 1926, with the possibility of a revision of the protocol itself at the next assembly meeting. It is deemed in official circles here that, however, are careful to insist that postscripted does not mean abandonment, emphasizing that it is best to proceed slowly.

Britain Will Send Delegate to Rome

Indicates Government's Policy Is To Support Armament Protocol

London.—Foreign Minister Austen Chamberlain has announced that he would attend the League of Nations Council meeting at Rome, December 8, as the head of the British delegation. This announcement is taken as an indication that the Conservative Government's policy will be one of closest co-operation and support for the league. It contradicts the idea that the recent British request for the postponement of the armament protocol discussion at Rome was in any way connected with the possibility of non-participation on the part of Great Britain in the protocol.

Wins Honors At Royal Winter Fair

Percheron From E.P. Ranch Is Awarded Blue Ribbon

Toronto.—Winning first honors in a group of eight, Princeton Commodore, yearling Percheron stallion, bred on the E.P. Ranch in Alberta, was awarded the blue ribbon in his class at the Royal Winter Fair here.

Princeton Commodore was bred on the Prince's ranch last year and sired by the imported stallion Job. Competition was close and the result in doubt for some time. The same horse will also be shown in the champion, Percheron class. Princeton Boss, another representative of the E.P. Ranch, was not shown. She is suffering from slight injuries sustained the day before she entrained for Toronto.

Motor Mechanic in Newfoundland Trial Gives Evidence

St. John's, Nfld.—At the trial of Leonard G. Reid, son of the late Sir W. D. Reid, who is facing a charge of manslaughter following the killing of six men last September, when his automobile ran into a crowd of people here, it was stated that Reid's car was travelling at the rate of 50 miles an hour when the accident took place. The statement was made by a motor mechanic named Silverlock.

Latest Addition to Great Lakes Fleet Built in Canada

Midland, Ont.—The new freighter, Gleniffer, which was under construction in the Midland Shipbuilding Company's yard during the summer, has been successfully launched. The vessel is the latest addition to the fleet of the Great Lakes Transportation Company and is the second largest freighter ever built in Canada for Great Lakes service.

The vessel is 560 feet over all length on keel, 53 feet; breadth, 50 feet; depth, 22 feet. It is feared that the company will immediately lay the keel of a sister ship built along the same lines, but 26 feet longer.

Death Of Cardinal Loure

Passing of Primate of Ireland Mourned By People Of Erin

Belfast.—Cardinal Loure, primate of Ireland, is dead. There had been no intimation of the cardinal's illness, and the news of his demise caused a great shock throughout Ireland. The primate died at his residence, "An Coill," in Armagh. Cardinal Loure celebrated his gold jubilee as primate on December 21, 1916. He was known as the grand old man of the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland. He had a tiny frame but unbowed courage which he frequently had need during the period of strife in Ireland.

Could Not Dispute Claim

Soviet Government Gets Possession of State Papers London

London.—After extended negotiations, the Soviet delegation here in possession of Chechen House, the former Imperial Russian embassy, as well as the Imperial archives housed at the same place. The Soviet Government arranged to take over the lease of the house from the executors of the late Count Benckendorff, the last ambassador of the czar to England, and as it has been recognized by the British Government as the "de jure" government of Russia, its claim to the state papers could not be resisted.

Ottawa, Ont.—Revision of the Grain Act at the next session of parliament will deal with the fundamental aspects of the measure and will be guided largely by the report of the Royal Commission inquiring into the grain trade. Discuss Trade Treaty Between Britain and Germany

London.—The negotiations between Germany and Great Britain for a commercial treaty have reached a stumbling block over the question of the 26 per cent levy on German exports under the Reparation Recovery Act. The British Government is understood to be unwilling to cancel the levy while the Germans are demanding that it be abolished before a satisfactory treaty can be drawn up. The negotiations otherwise are proceeding so smoothly that British officials expect Germany will probably recede from her stand to the extent of agreeing to discuss the levy with the other matters connected with the proposed treaty.

Claim Italians Being Watched

Mussolini's Agents Active in England Says Dr. Crespi

London.—Allegations that Italians living in England were watched by Mussolini's agents, and if they spoke against his government, incurred grave danger should they return to Italy, were made by Dr. Angelo Crespi, of London University, at a meeting of the newly-formed Italian Opposition Party's Committee. Dr. Crespi declared that Italians living abroad who opposed Mussolini were not sure of receiving their letters from Italy. Any change in their address was noted, and their public speeches were reported in Rome.

Canada Soon To Have A MINISTER IN WASHINGTON

New York.—Canada will have a minister in Washington in the near future, Hon. George P. Graham, minister of railways, declared in replying to the toast to Canada, which was proposed by Sir Esmé Howard, British ambassador to the United States, at the annual dinner of the Canadian Club.

After a reference to the close relationship and interlocking interests of Canada and the United States, Mr. Graham said: "It will not be very many months until Canada will have a representative at Washington."

Mr. Graham said: "I propose to drink to Canada—the first of the firm partners of our Empire, to her continued prosperity and happiness and to the magnificent future which, I am sure, awaits her in years to come."

"Complete liberty to each individual Dominion as to its development with brother co-operation among them all and the Empire in matters of world policy is the only policy through which the world will be able to 'hold together' and exert its full influence in the world," Sir Esmé said.

"Canada, especially," he said, "by reason of her position as an American power, will have an exceptional position and play an exceptionally important part in the future development in the British Empire."

"It will be for her," he added, "to interpret to the rest of us the feelings and the attitude of this great American republic, with whom we not only desire but intend to live in the most cordial friendship and in peace in the future."

Farmers Better Off

Montreal.—Though the western crop has been disappointing in yield per acre and wheat production will probably fall more than two hundred million bushels below last year's total, the farmers of the west are better off, owing to the enormous increase in the price of wheat, according to the views of C. W. Peterson, editor of the Farm and Ranch Review, Calgary, who was in Montreal on his way to Europe.

WESTERN CANADA CAPTURES PRIZES AT EASTERN FAIR

Toronto.—Never before has the size and importance of the Royal Show been so well demonstrated when the big rig, with its tankard carpet, was literally filled with stock from practically all over Canada, and a number of outstanding entries from the United States. Each year Western Canada has been sending heavier entries, and this year, there is an exhibit of prize stock that does credit to any country so new in the breeding business as is Western Canada. The west made the horse show, so far as the drought-bred are concerned.

The Western Canada team's leading team won the bacon hog judging contest. This team was brought east by the Canadian National Railway, and at a banquet tendered them by the Canadian National Railway, they were presented with the cup they won at the Winter Fair. Besides the cup, each boy was presented with a medal by the Canadian National Railway. W. D. Robb, vice-president of the Canadian National, made the presentation. H. S. Arrell, Dominion livestock commissioner, and Dan Johnston, general agricultural agent of the Canadian National Railway, also spoke congratulating the boys on their splendid achievements.

The winners of the cup were the boys from Alberta: Pete Wylie and Albert Jones, while Nelson Shoemaker and Fraser McQuarry, of Manitoba, and Everett Lunn and Raymon Reefs, of Saskatchewan, were second and third, respectively.

Asks Limitation Of Drugs

Canada and China Support U.S. Proposals for Control

Geneva.—Canada and China threw their support to the United States proposals for the control and ultimate eradication of the narcotic drug evil when the international opinion conference resumed its sessions. Hon. Dr. H. S. Beland, speaking for Canada, pointed out that the United States had enacted laws, the enforcement of which would be sufficient to eradicate the evil. If, however, the evil continued, organized smuggling did not flood the whole land with heroin, morphine and cocaine.

Dr. Beland insisted that the remedy against the plague lay in the hands of the conference and he appealed to all the nations to free humanity "from these hideous monsters."

To Avoid Radio Conflict

The Realignment of Radio Waves Is Proceeding

Ottawa.—The realignment of waves to radio broadcasting stations in Canada and the United States has not yet been completed, according to information furnished by the radio branch of the department of marine and fisheries.

In the present time, Washington is busily engaged working on the United States assignment, and Ottawa on the Canadian, and the wave lengths will be so arranged as to avoid conflict between the Canadian and American stations. The changes, it is expected, will become effective about the end of December.

Early Court Hearing On Crow's Nest Case

Premier King Will Facilitate Appeal to Supreme Court

Ottawa.—Premier Mackenzie King, while stating that there will be no action by the government regarding the Crow's Nest case after the hearing on December 4, indicated that an early pronouncement by the courts as well as the cabinet is most desirable. There is no doubt that if the appellate process in getting leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, which is the case heard in December, it will be.
